

FORUM SERIES 2018/19

SWEAT: RIGHT TO WORK - OCTOBER 10TH, 2018

Lynn Nottage's Pulitzer Prize winning play, SWEAT, has a lot to say to Greenville with our history as the Textile Capital of the World and our current position as a manufacturing leader. Come join the conversation as we discuss mill revitalization, the cost of labor unions, the parameters of labor law, and how their presence (and absence) has affected our community.

CHRISTMAS ON THE ROCKS: DEEP CUTS - DECEMBER 4TH, 2018

In a culture that is so focused on celebrity and quickly jumps from fascination to fascination, what happens when those who have achieved fame want to live normal lives? Do their ghosts of celebrity past haunt their future prospects?

THE GLASS MENAGERIE: FAMILY DYNAMICS ON FIRE - JANUARY 23RD, 2019

Family is complicated. Join us as we take a closer look at different dynamics in varying family units: traditional, single parent, nontraditional, foster, adoption, and all sorts of blended families.

POWER OF SAIL: THE DOS AND DON'TS ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES - MARCH 13TH, 2019

Is hate speech protected as free speech? Where should we draw the line? This topic is being played out in our country and specifically in our college campuses daily. Come take a closer look at all sides of the issue.

CRY IT OUT: WORKING A MOTHER OVER - APRIL 24TH, 2019

Being a mom is a lot of hard work, but does it count as a job? Take part in the conversation with this all female panel composed of working moms, stay-at-home moms, and women who have chosen not to be moms.

PRIDE & PREJUDICE: BREAKING THE TIES - JUNE 5TH, 2019

Tradition dictates the natural order of things, but what happens when expectation and reality collide causing things to go differently than planned? We will explore etiquette, debutantes, and long held Southern tradition, discussing how things have changed (and stayed the same) over the generations.

ALL FORUMS BEGIN AT 6:30P AND ARE FREE TO THE PUBLIC. Moderator of most Forums is Jonathan Parker.
